Major Regulatory Changes Incoming in 2022

The year ahead promises major developments in both the securities and insurance sectors. These developments will impact you and your business moving forward. We will work hard to ensure your voice is heard by decision-makers across the country. In 2022, expect the roll-out of title protection in Ontario, consultations on a major re-write of Ontario's securities legislation, the formation of a new Self-Regulatory Organization to replace the MFDA and IIROC, and a new initiative on incentives in the insurance sector. Click on the "Read More" button below to learn more about these and other significant regulatory developments.
